ALOVING MOTHER'S SACRIFICE. A collection of Two-Piece Suits

Torturing Operation.

It is to Save Her Little Boy, and She Is Content.

Mrs. Anni: Munch, a heroic woman, began to-day a mother's sacrifice for the cure of her terribly afflicted little boy.

Mrs. Munch and her husband came in July last to America with their little ones from Russia. They rented a home in the tenement at 35 Norfolk street, and struggled barely to make a living in their new surroundings.

his mother. His clothing caught fire, and before the blaze was extinguished the little fellow had been burned so horribly that the authorities at Gouverneur Hospital would not let him remain there, but transferred the pitiful little sufferer to Bellevue Hespital.

Physicians and surgeons, one of the greatest experts in the land, was to begin the long and tedious multiple operation of transferring the skin of the mother to the body of the son.

mother's self-imposed wound will be dressed and for three days she will be a patient. Then she will be able to be about until size is needed again.

The operation of skin-grafting is generally quite successful, and no failure is anticipated in this case.

The Bremen arrived in a few minutes, but mean time the flames had spread. Several people who were in the neighborhood at the time alarmed the sleeping lumates in the houses adjoining, and by the time the firemen reached the scene women and children were rushing into the street from the dwellings, clad only in their night-clothes.

The cause of the fire is unknown, but the police theory is that an overheated kiln had something to do with it.

Oct. 28 little Hyman, a child of eight years, played with matches during the absence of pitful little sufferer to Bellevue Hespital, that depesitory for forfore hopes and abandoned cases.

There little Hyman had a hard time of tripulling through, and he required and received the best attention of the most skilled physicials at the land.

He revived, regained much of his physical strength, but all the said employed could not induce the great burn that covered his whole body, from his chin down and from affonder to shoulder and thigh to thigh, to heat; and today it is still an epon sore, a toot wide by fitteen inches long.

There was but one remedy, a consultation.

There was but one remedy, a consultation of eminent physicians said yesterday to the anxiously waiting mather, who had meaned and wept over her boy every day for weeks. That remedy was by Sain-graiting. The operation was explained to Annie Munch. Without hesitation size said:

"If I only had some way to take care of my children and some one would care for me!"

Commissioner Thomas F. Brennan reached his desk in the offices of the Street-Cleaning bepartment at 10.30 o'clock this morning with an aching heal and heart. He had tackled his first show-storm since special in the land, was to be a superior of transferring and tedious multiple operation of transferring he skin of the mother to the body of the son. Mother and sen are lying in Surgical Ward, under charge of House Surgern Charnes Gilson. In the long operation Mrs. Since them the strength to continue the has to be eitherized. Then, with a raper could do, Prof. Hotchkiss carefully shaves off the outer skin thou the thigh of the mother. The skin thus search is hardly one one-hundredth of an beh thick.

The cutting does not cause the blood to flow, and a phleginate person might stand the shaving without ether and without filming.

The transfer of the commissioner councillation for the outer skin thou the flight of the mother. The cutting does not cause the blood to flow, and a phleginate person might stand the shaving without ether and without filming.

The cutting does not cause the blood to flow the cutting of the commissioner councillation. At that time the commissioner nad worsh with the arrived worsted at 3 o'clock.

At that time the Commissioner councillation for the united and worn out as instance, retired worsted at 3 o'clock.

At that time the Commissioner nad worsh size them the strength to continue the battle, and he, quite as tired and worn out as instance, retired worsted at 3 o'clock.

At that time the Commissioner rouncillation for the united and worn out as instance, and the downtown ferry streets, and Broadway was as bare as a board from Howing Green to Thirtleth street, with the exception of three short blocks, with the exception of three short blocks.

But Mrs. Munch, though a strong, healthy woman, Is very nervous, and the either is deemed necessary. The skin will be taken in strips perhaps an inche kide and from four inches to a footlong, from the thigh. They will be placed first about the edges of the great sore on the child's besty and it will take a week for the edges to unite to the edges of the dewound, and thus make ready nor the placeting of the next strips.

The wound is so large that it will take three months to complete the great patter of mother's skin on little Hyman's load.

Meantime, after each operation the mother's self-imposed wound will be dressed had for three days she will be a mattent.

The others were between Canal and transities and between Fourth street and between Fourth street.
